The marriage of Seat Anans Devey and Michael Geoffrey Devey

Before District Judge Harvey

UPON HEARING Counsel for the Applicant husband and the Respondent wife in person

AND UPON the basis that:

(1) each party is responsible for the cost of maintaining the children while in that party's care

(2) the Applicant accepts responsibility for Rebecca's university fees, the twins' school activities, dinner money and school uniform and the cost of the au pair

(3) until the sale of the house, the Applicant will continue to meet all the outgoings hitherto borne by him, that is to say, mortgage, council tax, water rates, insurance, utility bills, telephone, internet subscriptions, household repairs, TV licence, medical insurance, au pair, food, gardener, household outgoings, life assurance premiums, and the cost of the children as in (2) above

IT IS ORDERED as follows

1. The former matrimonial home at 8 Curzon Avenue, Beaconsfield be placed on the market forthwith for sale at the best price reasonably obtainable by agents to be jointly instructed by the parties.

2. Upon completion of the sale, the net proceeds of sale after redeeming the mortgage and paying the usual expenses of sale shall be divided equally between the parties.

3. Forthwith upon completion the Applicant husband shall pay or cause to be paid to the Respondent wife a lump sum of £40,000.

4(i) The Trustees or managers of the BP pension scheme do pay or cause to be paid to the Respondent wife on behalf of the Applicant husband 50% of the lump sum payable in the event of his death in service under the terms of the said pension scheme

(ii) Any such payment by the Trustees or managers of the said pension scheme
